Admiral Daniel J. Murphy, USN (Ret)
Deputy Under Secretary of Defense (Policy)
Room 2E812, The Pentagon
Washington, D. C. 20301

Dear Admiral Murphy:

I have learned that Maynard Anderson is joining your staff. I take this opportunity to commend him to you.

As the Chairman of the DCI's Security Committee and previously as the CIA member, I observed Maynard's participation in and contributions to this organization. I find him perceptive, a willing worker, thorough in preparation, effective in action, possessing a balanced regard for equities and appreciative of the myriad demands that this complexing environment and time levy on our security efforts. He is a gentleman and a true professional with a reach of imagination that exceeds provincial boundaries. If he continues to display these traits and qualities in his new assignment, and I have no doubts that he will do any less, you have acquired a fine addition to your staff.

Your tasking may bring Mr. Anderson into future contact with the Committee. If so, I will be pleased to assist him whenever I can.

Sincerely,

Robert W. Gambino
Chairman, Security Committee

Dear Maynard:

I thank you for your note. Your comments on the status of the Security Committee are encouraging and appreciated.

While you acknowledged personal and career benefits derived as the Navy member, I believe that your breadth of interests and willing cooperation on many tasks demonstrate a reach beyond partisan representation and reflect a true community spirit.

With such an approach, I'm sure you will enjoy and advance in your new undertakings as Deputy Director for Security Policy in the Office of the Deputy Under Secretary of Defense (Policy). I look forward to seeing you as your duties bring you into contact with the Committee.

Sincerely,

Robert W. Gambino

Dear Bob,

Before the next meeting of the Security Committee, I will have assumed the duties of Deputy Director for Security Policy in the office of the Deputy Undersecretary of Defense (Policy).

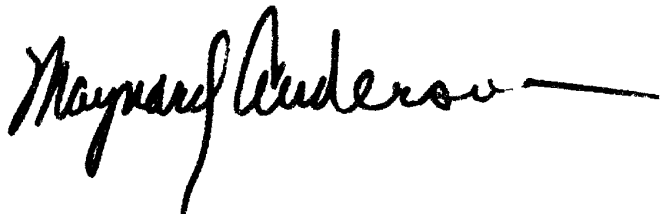

It has been a privilege to occupy the Navy chair on the Security Committee. The Navy has received many benefits because of the extraordinary cooperation and assistance which you and the other members of the group have rendered during my tenure. I would be remiss, too, if I failed to acknowledge the personal and career benefits which have been derived from the position.

The Security Committee is gaining notice and prestige as a more professional organization under your leadership. I am most pleased to have been able to participate as an active member during this significant time.

My new charter directs that I relate, as appropriate, to the Security Committee and Intelligence Community Staff on matters involving security of intelligence and counter-intelligence information. Consequently, I will surely be calling on you for assistance again and look forward to continuation of our association.

Sincerely,

Mr. Robert Gambino
Chairman
DCI Security Committee
